Board of Studies in History

26 February 2016

The meeting of the Board of studies in History was held today the 26th February, 2016. Following were present. The syllabi of the PG in History for session 2016-2017 (Old Course), CBCS for new session 2016-18 and onwards and one-year Bridge Course for Madrassa students were considered. Following was recommended and resolved:

- The concerned syllabi were ratified after necessary amendments wherever necessary;
- All the 16 core papers for new CBCS programme for session 2016-18 and onwards to be sue motto adopted for the old course session 2015-16;
- Four basket papers could be offered from the existing 16 core papers in CBCS course keeping in view the limited staff strength, infrastructure, students interests and the practice vogue in prominent Central Universities of JNU, DU, HCU etc.;
- Intake could be increased from 25 to 30 in PG;
- Age limit could be increased from 28 to 35 years for forthcoming PG admissions.
